KATE SHEPPARD BIKATHON and HERITAGE DAY

Katherine Wilson Sheppard (1848-1934)

On Waitangi Day 1992, Ferry Mead Historic Park was the venue for the Bikathon, the first of a series of events planned by the Yesteryears Trust.

The Trust was formed to commemorate the outstanding achievements of a group of ten Cantabrians who made a major impact on the world around the turn of the century.

One of the first radical and suffragettes, Kate Sheppard was also frequently seen cycling around Christchurch, and so a bikathon has been chosen to symbolise her outstanding contribution to shaping today's society.

The objective of the Yesteryears promotion is to make a family day at Ferry Mead a major annual event.

Entrants in the bikathon left from the Ferry Mead carpark and followed a 18km course through Woolston, Opawa, the Heathcote Valley and back to the Park, taking in a number of historical landmarks along the way.

Following the bikathon, entrants picniced in the Park where a programme of activities and entertainment appropriate to a turn of the century town fair was arranged.
